Chapter 122: The Butlers of the Divine Triad

In addition to the elite Castle Guardians, each member of the Divine Triad created a unique butler to oversee the daily maintenance, operations, and ceremonial duties of their castles. These butlers, forged from the very essence of their creators' powers, embodied the ideals and traits of their respective masters. Beyond their roles as caretakers, these butlers were imbued with immense power, capable of defending their castles if the need arose.

Ashborn’s Butler: Luciel

Creation: Forged from pure light, Luciel was shaped from the radiant energy of the Absolute Being.

Appearance: A tall, slender figure clad in flowing robes of shimmering gold and white, Luciel’s body radiates a soft, warm glow. His face is serene, with golden eyes that exude wisdom and calmness.

Abilities:

Light Manipulation: Can bend light to create shields, repair structures, or illuminate vast areas.

Sanctuary Restoration: Instantly cleanses and restores any damage to Absolute Castle.

Divine Servitude: Performs tasks with precision and an aura of tranquility that soothes all who interact with him.

Personality: Luciel is calm, collected, and deeply respectful of Ashborn. He speaks with grace and ensures that the Absolute Castle operates flawlessly, maintaining its ethereal beauty.

Sung Jin-Woo’s Butler: Dural

Creation: Formed from the fertile black soil of the Shadow Realm, Dural embodies the essence of growth and resilience.

Appearance: A robust, broad-shouldered figure with dark, earthen skin and glowing violet eyes. He wears a tailored suit made of shadow-infused fabric, giving him a regal yet formidable presence.

Abilities:

Shadow Repair: Uses shadow energy to repair and fortify the Umbra Citadel’s structures.

Earth Mastery: Can reshape the terrain around the citadel, creating defensive walls or pathways.

Shadow Tactician: Assists in strategizing castle defenses and managing the movements of shadow troops.

Personality: Dural is loyal, disciplined, and pragmatic. He possesses a dry sense of humor and an unyielding dedication to Sung Jin-Woo, often advising him with straightforward, practical wisdom.

Sung Su-Ho's Butler: Ignis

Creation: Born from molten lava, Ignis is a fiery embodiment of strength and passion.

Appearance: A towering figure with skin resembling cooled magma, glowing veins of molten fire coursing beneath the surface. His formal attire is crafted from dragon-scale fabric, radiating heat and power.

Abilities:

Flame Restoration: Uses molten energy to repair Eternis Draconis, ensuring the castle's fiery magnificence remains untarnished.

Heat Manipulation: Controls the temperature within the castle, creating warmth or searing heat when needed.

Lava Crafting: Constructs intricate tools, weapons, or decorations from molten rock.

Personality: Ignis is bold, enthusiastic, and fiercely loyal. His demeanor is warm and inviting, but he displays an intense ferocity when protecting the castle or serving Sung Su-Ho.

Duties of the Divine Butlers

1. Maintenance and Upkeep

Ensure that their respective castles remain pristine and fully operational.

Oversee repairs, fortifications, and the functioning of defensive mechanisms.

2. Ceremonial Assistance

Prepare the castles for rituals, gatherings, and meetings with emissaries or generals.

Coordinate with the Castle Guardians to manage castle security during events.

3. Loyal Advisors

Offer insights and strategies to their masters, acting as confidants and aides.

Serve as mediators or messengers between the Divine Triad and their forces.

The Butlers’ Significance

Luciel, Dural, and Ignis represent more than just servants; they are extensions of the Divine Triad’s will and power. Through their unparalleled dedication, they ensure that Absolute Castle, Umbra Citadel, and Eternis Draconis remain strongholds of perfection and unwavering defense. Together, they contribute to the Divine Triad’s legacy, safeguarding the sanctity and grandeur of their realms.
